Lisbon, May 12.

DON Antonio Alvarez Da Cunha, Lord of Taboa, &c. embarked ſome Days ago, for his Government of the Kingdom of Angola.

Moſcow, May 17. On the 14th Inſtant, about Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, a violent Fire broke out here, which deſtroyed upwards of 200 Houſes, and would have occaſioned a much more conſiderable Damage, if her Imperial Majeſty, and their Imperial Highneſſes the Grand Duke and Dutcheſs, had not given the moſt proper and careful Directions for the extinguiſhing of it. The Empreſs has been pleaſed, at the Interceſſion of his Britannick Majeſty, to reſtore to her Favour the Counts Czernicheff and Leontioff, who had forfeited the ſame, by a Duel they fought ſome Time ago.

Genoa, June 4. By Letters of the 26th paſt from Baſtia, a Proclamation had been iſſued the Day before, by M. Grimaldi, the Republick's Commiſſary General, promiſing a General Pardon on Behalf of the Republick, to all the Inhabitants of the Iſland of Corſica, for all Offences committed to that Day; and exhorting the Inhabitants to apply to M. Grimaldi, that he may repreſent to the Republick, whatever may be deſired by the People of the Iſland. The general Conſultation of the Pieves, that was to have been held the laſt Day of May, has been poſtponed until the 8th Inſtant, from which Protraction it is judged, that the Chiefs of the Rebels are not inclined to put an End to the Rebellion by ſeeking Means of Accommodation, but rather to foment the Diviſions, and keep up the Spirit of Animoſity, to prevent a Reconciliation between the Republick and the Inhabitants of the Iſland, who ſeem to be rather favourably inclined. The Marquis St. George, Prince of Ardore, who has reſided ſeveral Years at Paris, as Ambaſſador Extraordinary from the King of the Two Sicilies, after a Stay here of four Days, ſet out for Parma on his Way to Naples.

Baron Widmann, their Imperial Majeſties Miniſter Plenipotentiary at

at this Court, intends to ſet out very ſoon for Carlsbad, having been adviſed by his Phyſicians to repeat the Uſe of the warm Baths of that Place.

Dreſden, June 10. The Troops which are encamped at Ubigau, in the Neighbourhood of this Capital, are daily exerciſed in all ſuch Branches of the Military Duty, as may be required in Time of War. During the whole Action, their Royal Highneſſes the Princes Xavier, Charles and Clement, the prime Miniſter Count Bruhl, and Prince Lubomirsky, commanded at the Head of their reſpective Corps. The next day they performed another Exerciſe, with no leſs Order and Dexterity, at which were preſent the whole Court, and a great Number of General Officers in the Service of Foreign Princes; which began by opening of Trenches before a Kind of Fort, built for that Purpoſe, which is not to be ſurrendered to the Beſiegers, till it has ſuſtained their Attacks for three Days. When that Siege is finiſhed, the Army is to decamp, and the Regiments, of which it is compoſed, are to return to their former Quarters, or to thoſe which the Court may think proper to aſſign them.
